Royal Air Force

HOSPITAL RIGHT AT HOME—The three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. B. Treack, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., peer out of the door of their home from behind the health officer's warning signs. Evelyn, six, (left), first got over the mumps, then picked up the measles, now she has contracted the chicken pox. Of the three-year twins, Susan, (centre), is a mumps patient while Evelyn is being treated for the measles.

CANADIAN EMBLEM—Artist Haydn Martin, 26, (top), and Philip Kerr, 38, yet finishing touches to a large-scale Canadian emblem which will adorn the massive quadrilateral stand in Parliament Square, London, for the June 3 Coronation of Queen Elizabeth. With emblems of other Commonwealth countries, it is being prepared at London's Victoria and Albert Museum by artists from the Royal College of Art. One big paint-brush bearing the names of the colonists, is 76 feet in length and 24 feet in width at its widest point. The art student on the floor is unidentified.

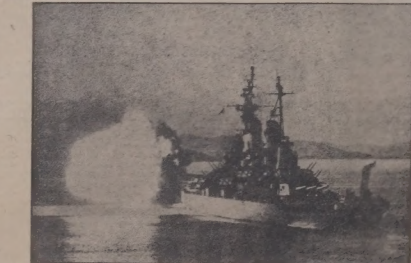

NOOTTEL—Extending his trunk like a telescope, this elephant at the London Zoo lifts a tubful from the hand of a wary youngster. The animal occupies an outdoor cage surrounded by a moat.

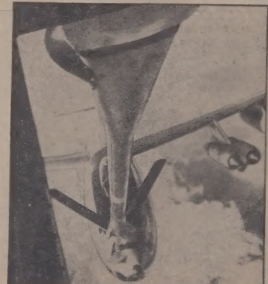

HOUSE OF ANOTHER COLOR—Canadian horse belonging to TV-courtesy Gene Autry taken on a TV-type live as he is made up of Arizona. Gene Autry before going on the television screen. Autry, his costume covered by a sheet, also received cosmetic treatment from Miss Gaudin before appearing on the TV screen.

WEARING HIS FLYING GEAR, the Duke of Edinburgh relaxes in the cockpit of a Harrow training plane at White Waltham airbase, England, shortly after he passed his final test flight to become a full-fledged pilot with the Royal Air Force. Already a marshal of the R.A.F., the Duke had his wings pinned on him at Buckingham Palace by Air Chief Marshal Sir William Dickson. He has been taking flying lessons for several months and has about 60 hours in the air to his credit.

"MIGHTY MO" MOVES 'EM DOWN—A booming blast from the United States Navy's battleship Missouri thunders across the water to wreak ruin on Communist installations near Wonsan harbor. North Korean ships can be seen in the background. The "Mighty Mo" has taken part in many battles since the start of the Korean war.

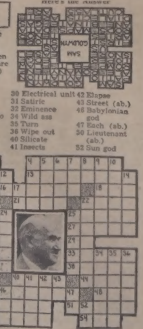

NON-STOP REFUEL—Seen here, high above the clouds, is a refueling operation which has been perfected by the United States Air Force. Ex-tending down from the top of the picture is the fuel transfer line through which the staff that keeps jet engines going is feeding to a B-47 strato-jet from a KC-97 strato-freighter tanker.

truth or error, save as things are proclaimed to be truth or error by the authorities.

They are alike in that they are actions which are entirely within the competence of the authority which in each case determined on them, but which no authority would have dreamed of taking a generation ago. In this respect they are not so bad as the action of the United States in preventing a Canadian citizen, Mrs. Rae Luckock of Toronto, from attending a session of the United Nations or one of its agencies, by refusing to allow her to enter American territory. The United States, as host nation to the headquarters of the United Nations, is obligated to allow anybody who has business with that body to attend its meetings, and Mrs. Luckock is the appointed representative of a voluntary organization recognized by the U.N.

It is no use saying that governments are not to do these things. They have the power to do them, and public opinion is not disposed to kick much about their doing it. Probably the most we can do is rise up and question the wisdom of their doing it in any particular case.

None of the titles referred to in the first paragraph of this article is likely to do much to improve the safety or peace of the State where it was taken. None of them could possibly be regarded as necessary to that peace or safety. And every action of this kind makes it easier to take the next and less wise and more dangerous action.

Local and District

Coal Production

Coal production in Alberta mines was 137,233 tons last week in the same month in 1951, it was 138,000 in 1952, figures released for publication by J. A. Dutton, director of mines for Alberta.

J. A. DUTTON
Director of Mines for Alberta
Total production for the 28 mines listed in the survey shows a decrease of 1,767 tons from 138,765 tons in 1951 to 137,233 tons in 1952. The decrease is due to a decrease in production of 1,767 tons in the 28 mines listed in the survey, and an increase of 1,534 tons in the 10 mines not listed in the survey.

In Memoriam

FRIEDLEY—In loving memory of Raymond and Martha, who were killed June 22nd, 1951.

The grief we all together
But they were not alone
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together
We think of them in silence;
Their names we often read
But there is no one left to answer
Only their picture on the wall
Just when their life was bright
Just when their hopes were best
God called them from among us
To a home of eternal rest.

In Memoriam

FRIEDLEY—In loving memory of our dear brother and sister, Raymond and Martha, who were killed June 22nd, 1951.

Time rolls on, and we are reminded
Of the days our hearts were crushed
When God took them, oh! so quickly
And we all in grief were thrust.
In the bloom of life, death took them
In the glories of youthful days
But none day we'll meet them, and be
As they were when they were
—Ever remembered by
Elmer, Pauline and Family.

In Memoriam

FRIEDLEY—In memory of our dear Raymond and Martha, who passed away on June 22nd, 1951.

Today recall and memories
Of dear ones who rest;
And think of them in silence
As they were when they were
—Ever remembered by
Clifford, Marguerite and Family.

POSTAL WORKERS DESERVE PRAISE

CONSIDERING some of the building facilities provided by the federal government, the quantity of obsolete "red-tape-rulers" and the obvious monotony of the work Canada's postal workers each year accomplish a gigantic task worthy of the utmost praise from patrons.

In driving through the rural areas of Canada one finds that in most instances the most remarkable buildings in any village or town are the ones carrying the Post Office sign. The steps, through the heavy traffic of yester years, worthy points is needed, to interior and exterior and space is inadequate.

Even in larger centres the Post Office buildings in only a few instances are adequate for the service of the public and the convenience of the workers.

(From the Drumheller Mail)

As required by The Income Tax Act, this will advise our customers that it is our intention to make a payment in proportion to patronage in respect of the year ending the 30th day of June, 1954, and we hereby hold forth the prospect of patronage payment accordingly.

This refers to Wheat, Oats, Barley, Flax and Rye sold to the Company or as through its company elevators between July 1st, 1953, and June 30th, 1954.

need a deep well pump?

you'll be glad you installed a...

FAIRBANKS SUBMERSIBLE!

HERE'S WHY...

It is economical — in installation — uses only one length of pipe in laying... in operation — because it is smaller motor, needs less power to operate... in maintenance — no valves to replace; no valves to repair; no lubrication needed because this pump and motor are water cooled and water lubricated.

Has many advantages — never needs painting — 100% efficient — install or remove with simple shop electric service pipes may be cut in below first line tank and electric controls may be set over with our away from it.

Performance proved in thousands of installations.

Quality guaranteed by FAIRBANKS-MORSE!
